

Cole & Ward

Biography & Press

BIOGRAPHY

Mark Cole (Sons of the Delta, The Jigantics) is a respected multi-instrumentalist, singer and songwriter and has played and recorded internationally for over forty years. His recordings, including his solo album COLE, have all garnered critical acclaim. Liam Ward (Liam Ward Band, Jake Leg Jug Band) is an official Hohner artists and has won awards for his harmonica skills. His albums which feature his inventive songwriting have received great reviews globally and he is well known harmonica tutor. Together, they deliver an entertaining and diverse show of Southern American music styles and a set from these two takes a "pass-the-parcel" approach with each given a chance to share their own styles and songs, with a growing number of co-written songs from their debut album, Blues and Other. If you ask for an encore, you might even hear a harp duel between the two of them!

QUOTES

"A quality and professionalism that sets them apart from so many"
ROCK 'N' REEL MAGAZINE

"Fantastic"
PAUL JONES, BBC RADIO 2

"Two great musicians doing what they do best"
BLUES IN BRITAIN

"This is sunshine music"
BLUESDOODLE.COM

Website: <https://coleandward.co.uk>

Contact: info@coleandward.co.uk